RINO Hunt in Assembly District 36: It's On!

This week I officially launched our Trump-like “outsider” campaign to bag a tax-hiking RINO (Republican in Name Only) in Nevada Assembly District 36: James “The Big Selloutski” Oscarson.

The paperwork was officially filed on Tuesday and WOW, what a pair of campaign kickoff events this weekend!

First we had 153 people show up for a standing-room-only VIP cocktail/hors d'ourvres reception at the Nye County Republican Party headquarters on Friday night featuring celebrity chefs Heather Williams and Koop Wynkoop from the Hell's Kitchen reality TV show.

Then on Saturday night Heather and Koop served up an absolutely fantastic pasta dinner at the Pahrump Seniors Center for a second sold out campaign kickoff event.

What a crowd. What food. What fun!

We served almost 300 dinners and handed out 200 VIP “rain checks” for our upcoming April 21st event (details soon!) featuring Trump adviser Roger Stone to folks who couldn’t get in.

On Sunday Heather and Koop volunteered to serve an additional 165 people at Meals of Wheels!

And don't forget why we're running against Mr. Taxhiker in the first place...

- He voted for the largest tax hike in Nevada history
- He voted for 29 out of 32 other tax hikes
- He voted to create a new “Nevada IRS”
- He’s pocketed almost $300,000 in contributions from lobbyists and other special interests
- He’s done absolutely nothing in the Legislature to protect our water rights

As you can imagine, this hasn't exactly made “The Big Selloutski” popular with the average voter who is now paying higher sales taxes, higher DMV fees, higher gas taxes, higher property taxes and higher hunting fees.

No wonder this is what he considers to be a “crowd”...

No, James. THIS is a CROWD! . . .

Thanks to everyone who joined us to officially launch our campaign for Assembly District 36.
